

DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE POLICY

January 1, 2001

6/25/2002
LONGHORN, INC.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE POLICY

1. POLICY

- 1.1 Longhorn, Inc. has a vital interest in maintaining a safe, healthy, and efficient working environment. Being under the influence of a drug or alcohol on the job poses serious safety and health risks to the user and to all those who work with the user. The use, sale, purchase, transfer, or possession of an illegal drug in the workplace, and the use, possession, or being under the influence of alcohol also poses unacceptable risks for safe, healthy, and efficient operations.
- 1.2 Longhorn, Inc. has the right and obligation to maintain a safe, healthy, and efficient workplace for all of its employees, and to protect the organization's property, information, equipment, operations and reputation.
- 1.3 Longhorn, Inc. recognizes its obligations to its member companies for the provision of services that are free of the influence of illegal drugs and alcohol, and will endeavor through this policy to provide drug-and alcohol-free services.
- 1.4 Longhorn, Inc. further expresses its intent through this policy to comply with federal and state rules, regulations or laws that relate to the maintenance of a workplace free from illegal drugs and alcohol.
- 1.5 As a condition of employment, all employees are required to abide by the terms of this policy and to notify Longhorn's management of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace no later than five days after such conviction.

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1 This policy outlines the goals and objectives of Longhorn's drug and alcohol testing program and provides guidance to supervisors and employees concerning their responsibilities for carrying out the program.

3. SCOPE

- 3.1 This policy applies to all departments, all employees and all job applicants. The term employee includes contracted employees.

4. DEFINITIONS

- 4.1 Alcohol means any beverage that contains ethyl alcohol (ethanol), including but not limited to beer, wine and distilled spirits.
- 4.2 Company premises or company facilities means all property of Longhorn, Inc. including, but not limited to , the offices, facilities and surrounding areas on Longhorn, Inc.-owned or -leased property, parking lots, and storage areas. The term also includes Longhorn, Inc.-owned or -leased vehicles and equipment wherever located.
- 4.3 Contraband means any article, the possession of which on Longhorn, Inc. premises or while on Longhorn, Inc. business, causes an employee to be in violation of Longhorn, Inc. work rule or law. Contraband includes illegal drugs and alcoholic beverages, drug paraphernalia, lethal weapons, firearms, explosives, incendiaries, stolen property, counterfeit money, untaxed whiskey, and pornographic materials.
- 4.4 Drug testing means the scientific analysis of urine, blood, breath, saliva, hair, tissue, and other specimens of the human body for the purpose of detecting a drug or alcohol.
- 4.5 Illegal drug means any drug which is not legally obtainable; any drug which is legally obtainable but has not been legally obtained; any prescribed drug not legally obtained; any prescribed drug not being used for the prescribed purpose; any over-the-counter drug being used at a dosage level other than recommended by the manufacturer or being used for a purpose other than intended by the manufacturer; and any drug being used for a purpose not in accordance with bona fide medical therapy. Examples of illegal drugs are cannabis substances, such as marijuana and hashish, cocaine, heroin, methamphetamine, phencyclidine (PCP), and so-called designer drugs and look-alike drugs.
- 4.6 Legal drug means any prescribed drug or over-the-counter drug that has been legally obtained and is being used for the purpose for which prescribed or manufactured.
- 4.7 Reasonable belief means a belief based on objective facts sufficient to lead a prudent person to conclude that a particular employee is unable to satisfactorily perform his or her job duties due to drug or alcohol impairment. Such inability to perform may include, but not be limited to, decreases in the quality or quantity of the employee's productivity, judgment, reasoning, concentration and psychomotor control, and marked changes in behavior. Accidents, deviations from safe working practices, and erratic conduct indicative of impairment are examples of "reasonable belief" situations.
- 4.8 Under the influence means a condition in which a person is affected by a drug or by alcohol in any detectable manner. The symptoms of influence are not confined to those consistent with misbehavior, nor to obvious impairment of physical or mental ability, such as slurred speech or difficulty in maintaining balance. A determination of being under the influence can be established by a professional opinion, a scientifically valid test, such as urinalysis or blood analysis, and in some cases by the opinion of a layperson.

5. EDUCATION

- 5.1 Supervisors and other management personnel are to be trained in:
- a. detecting the signs and behavior of employees who may be using drugs or alcohol in violation of this policy;
 - b. intervening in situations that may involve violations of this policy;
 - c. recognizing the above activities as a direct job responsibility.
- 5.2 Employees are to be informed of:
- a. the health and safety dangers associated with drug and alcohol use;
 - b. the provisions of this policy.

6. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

6.1 Legal Drugs

- a. The undisclosed use of any legal drug by any employee while performing Longhorn, Inc. business or while on Longhorn, Inc. premises is prohibited. However, an employee may continue to work even though using a legal drug if Longhorn, Inc. management has determined, after consulting with Longhorn's medical and/or human resources professional, that such use does not pose a threat to safety and that the using employee's ability to perform the essential functions of their position with or without reasonable accommodation is not significantly affected. Otherwise, the employee may be required to take leave of absence or comply with other appropriate action as determined by Longhorn, Inc. management.
- b. An employee whose medical therapy requires the use of a legal drug that may pose a threat to safety or otherwise impair the employee's ability to perform the essential functions of their position with or without reasonable accommodation, must report such use to his or her supervisor prior to the performance of Longhorn, Inc. business. The supervisor who is so informed will contact Longhorn's designated medical and/or human resources professional for guidance.
- c. Longhorn, Inc. at all times reserves the right through consultation with medical professionals to assess the effect that a legal drug may have on an employee's ability to perform the essential functions of their position with or without reasonable accommodation and to restrict the using employee's work activity or presence at the workplace accordingly.

6.2 Illegal Drugs and Alcohol

- a. The use, sale, purchase, transfer, or possession of an illegal drug or of alcohol by any employee while on Longhorn, Inc. premises or while performing Longhorn, Inc. business is prohibited.

7. DISCIPLINE

- 7.1 Any employee who possesses, distributes, sells, attempts to sell, or transfers illegal drugs on Longhorn, Inc. premises or while on Longhorn, Inc. business will be discharged.
- 7.2 Any employee who is found to be in possession of or under the influence of alcohol in violation of this policy will be discharged.
- 7.3 Any employee who is found to be in possession of contraband in violation of this policy will be discharged.
- 7.4 Any employee who is found through drug or alcohol testing to have in his or her body a detectable amount of an illegal drug or of alcohol will be discharged.

8. DRUG AND ALCOHOL TESTING OF JOB APPLICANTS

- 8.1 All applicants for employment, including applicants for part-time and seasonal positions and applicants who are former employees, are subject to drug and alcohol testing.
- 8.2 An applicant must pass the drug test to be considered for employment.
- 8.3 An applicant will be notified of Longhorn's drug and alcohol testing policy prior to being tested; will be informed in writing of his or her right to refuse to undergo such testing; and will be informed that the consequence of refusal is termination of the pre-employment process.
- 8.4 An applicant will be provided written notice of this policy, and by signature will be required to acknowledge receipt and understanding of the policy.
- 8.5 If an applicant refuses to take a drug or alcohol test, or if evidence of the use of illegal drugs or alcohol by an applicant is discovered, either through testing or other means, the pre-employment process will be terminated.

9. DRUG AND ALCOHOL TESTING OF EMPLOYEES

- 9.1 Longhorn, Inc. will notify employees of this policy by:
 - a. Providing the Longhorn Employee Handbook for each employee wherein our Drug and Alcohol Abuse Policy is stated in summary form, and obtaining a written acknowledgment of each employee's receipt and understanding.
 - b. Providing this policy, in its entirety, to any employee upon request, and obtaining a written acknowledgment of the employees receipt and understanding.
 - c. Placing this policy on the agenda for various management meetings.

- 9.2 Longhorn, Inc. may perform drug or alcohol testing:
- a. Of any employee who manifests "reasonable belief" behavior.
 - b. Of any employee involved in a work related accident or injury that has resulted in either a significant physical injury (to oneself or any other person) or material damage to Longhorn, Inc. property. "Involved in" is specifically meant to include persons who may not have suffered an injury as a result of the accident but who were participants in or associated with the circumstances and events preceding or occurring simultaneously with the accident.
 - c. On a random basis of any employee.
 - d. On a basis of all employees
 - e. Of any employee who is subject to drug or alcohol testing pursuant to federal or state rules, regulations or laws.
- 9.3 An employee's consent to submit to drug or alcohol testing is required as a condition of employment and the employee's refusal to consent may result in discharge.
- 9.4 An employee who is tested in a "reasonable belief" situation may be suspended pending receipt of written tests results and whatever inquiries may be required. This suspension will be without pay.

10. APPEAL OF A DRUG OR ALCOHOL TEST RESULT

- 10.1 An applicant or employee whose drug or alcohol test reported positive will be offered the opportunity of a meeting to offer an explanation. The purpose of the meeting will be to determine if there is any reason that a positive finding could have resulted from some cause other than drug or alcohol use. Longhorn, Inc., through its health and/or human resource officials, will judge whether an offered explanation merits further inquiry.
- 10.2 An employee whose drug or alcohol test is reported positive will be offered the opportunity to:
- a. Obtain and independently test, at the employee's expense, the remaining portion of the urine specimen that yielded the positive result;
 - b. Obtain the written test result and submit it to an independent medical review at the employee's expense.
- 10.3 During the period of an appeal and any resulting inquiries, the pre-employment selection process for an applicant will be placed on hold, and the employment status of an employee may be suspended. The suspension will be without pay.

11. INSPECTIONS AND SEARCHES

- 11.1 Longhorn, Inc. may conduct unannounced general inspections and searches for drugs or alcohol on Longhorn, Inc. premises or in Longhorn, Inc. vehicles or equipment wherever located. Employees are expected to cooperate.
- 11.2 Search of an employee and his or her personal property may be made when there is reasonable belief to conclude that the employee is in violation of this policy.

- 11.3 An employee's consent to a search is required as a condition of employment, and the employee's refusal to consent may result in disciplinary action, including discharge.

- 11.4 Illegal drugs, drugs believed to be illegal, and drug paraphernalia found on Longhorn, Inc. property will be turned over to the appropriate law enforcement agency and the full cooperation given to any subsequent investigation. Substances that cannot be identified as an illegal drug by a layman's examination will be turned over to a forensic laboratory for scientific analysis.
- 11.5 Other forms of contraband, such as firearms, explosives, and lethal weapons, will be subject to seizure during an inspection or search. An employee who is found to possess contraband on Longhorn, Inc. property or while on Longhorn, Inc. business will be subject to discipline up to and including discharge.
- 11.6 If an employee is the subject of a drug-related investigation by Longhorn, Inc. or by a law enforcement agency, the employee may be suspended pending completion of the investigation. The suspension will be without pay.

12. EXEMPTIONS

- 12.1 In limited circumstances, primarily directed at business entertainment and Longhorn, Inc. special event functions, moderate use of alcohol may be authorized. For example,
 - a. in an appropriate business social setting. Examples of such include, but are not limited to:
 - * company sponsored golf tournaments
 - * open house and company appreciation dinner
 - * customer entertainment off Longhorn premises
 - b. when the President has previously approved it's use at a company meeting or function.
- 12.2 Firearms are not prohibited as contraband:
 - a. when used as unloaded office decor as antiques or collector's items
 - b. when transported unloaded for the purpose of customer entertainment
 - i.e.. hunting trips
- 12.3 Although Texas law does permit a licensed individual to carry a concealed weapon, Longhorn, Inc. hereby prohibits such practice on company premises, in company owned vehicles or equipment and/or during the performance of work related duties.

13. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 13.1 All information relating to drug or alcohol testing or the identification of persons as users of drugs and alcohol will be protected by Longhorn, Inc. as confidential unless otherwise required by law, overriding public health and safety concerns, or authorized in writing by the persons in question.
